Get up, Stand up

Put your hands up

Verse 1: Thomas

from Ghetto to Glory

Bob Gibson been on a mission

He multiplied the struggle and splitting it like division

Trying to make an image

that was never up in his vision

Breaking down pride

When you hear that final decision

Fatherless poor and black

Bitten on the ear by a rat

You can change poverty

that is a given fact to rise above, that was his plan of attack

Bob Gibson, yeah he did that

Verse 2: Daniel

He conquered the mound

The people around

Would shout in the crowds

The ambient sounds

#CompleteGamer – The Bob Gibson Story
Adam Maness – Composer
Lyrics by Compositions for LIFE/Brian Owens ED

The strike zone he found
While batters he clowned
Have batters swinging like merry go rounds
he took them to town

He was a game changer
The complete gamer
Throw a pitch so fast
It'll rearrange ya
He's no stranger
He's Bob Gibson been on a mission
He changed the game forever
The pitcher was his position

Chorus:

You're the ultimate, gamer
(chris) The game heavy, the opposition will never be ready
You're a, game changer
(Chris) Reach the top, champion blood running, something that can never be stopped
Hall of, famer
(chris) The big man coming, legendary feels got the crowd clutching their stomach
Oooohhhhhhhh
(Chris) We all got to face it, we are now witnessing greatness

You're a complete gamer!

Verse 3: Paco

Defined the era with an E.R.A.
1.12 and that was back in 68'
Strikeouts over 3,000
Innings with no hits
Twenty two and two thirds that's as real as it gets Lower the mound five inches
Setting records no Guinness
I'm a complete gamer
Pitching all nine innings
Throwing the fast balls like Popeye off the spinach
The batters cower in fear when Hoot steps up to pitch it
I said "Hoot!"

Chorus:

You're the ultimate, gamer
(chris) The game heavy, the opposition will never be ready
You're a, game changer
(chris) This the truth, I owe it all to my roots
Hall of, famer
(chris) The big man coming, legendary feels got the crowd clutching their stomach
Oooohhhhhhhh
(Chris) We all got to face it, we are now witnessing greatness

You're a complete gamer!

Bridge

Walk through the pain

(Thomas) Pain was in your game so you just walked into the flame and you will

We'll never be the same

(Daniel) Everybody watchin', Gibson came and then he conquered you will

Live to change the game

(Paco) Submit yourself as a legend, no love the fame

(Chris) The hawk running

Game clutching

Be careful the game changer is coming

Chorus:

You're the ultimate, gamer

(chris) The game heavy, the opposition will never be ready

You're a, game changer

(chris) Reach the top, champion blood running,

something that can never be stopped

(chris) The big man coming, legendary feels got the crowd clutching their stomach

Oooohhhhhhhh

(Chris) We all got to face it, we are now witnessing greatness

You're a complete gamer!
